Dear J & D Healthcare Services:

Thank you for submission of your recent Plan of Correction (POC) related to the deficiencies found during your on-site survey. The Accreditation Commission for Health Care, Inc. (ACHC) conducted an extensive evaluation of your POC, and has concluded that all deficiencies are now resolved. Please submit evidence of compliance supporting your POC within 60 days of the original dated letter.

On behalf of the Accreditation Commission for Health Care, Inc., it is my pleasure to inform you that J & D Healthcare Services has been approved for accreditation for the Private Duty Program. The services approved are Private Duty Aide Services, Private Duty Nursing Services. Your accreditation is effective January 16, 2014 through January 15, 2017. Of course, maintaining accreditation is contingent upon continued compliance with ACHC's standards during this period. In granting accreditation, ACHC finds that your company has demonstrated that it operates at a level of quality, integrity and effectiveness consistent with its standards.

Again, ACHC extends its congratulations to J & D Healthcare Services for being awarded accreditation. It is an achievement of which your organization can be proud and one which marks your commitment to quality in the provision of care.

Should you have any questions about your organization's findings, please contact your organization's Accreditation Advisor, Suzie Steger.

Sincerely,

Matthew D. Hughes
Director Business Development &
Customer Service
